Description

Immerse yourself in the Submerged wall art collection, a collaboration between Y&B and digital artist Kirin Young. Peaceful pastel colours inspired by the original painting they obscure. Submerged in the paint that painted them. A familiar new proverb "Can't see the painting for the paint" maybe a visual metaphor to the realities of one's life? Would you be so calm? These artworks are printed on stretched canvas and mounted as standard in a white wooden box frame. Bespoke sizes and framing service is also available on request. Dimensions: 660mm x 813mm (Standard Canvas , 19mm Classic White colour box frame) Lead Time: 2-5 days. Buy Online - <https://mineheart.com/submerged-1-framed-printed-canvas/>
